

Chauncey, I miss you so much.

I miss your smile, I miss carrying you up the stairs, I miss your sleeping on your bed, I miss you sleeping in the bed, I miss your lying on my lap, I miss your hair on my clothes, I miss your excitement after you get out of the bath, I miss your talking (barks), I miss putting on your collar, I miss saying, "where's your leash?", I miss the sparkle in your eyes, I miss our walks, I miss your hair on my clothes, I miss your excitement after you get out of the bath, I miss saying, "let's go bye-bye", I miss the attention you would receive from strangers when we went out, I miss how other dogs would always stop to greet you, I miss the shaking of your tail, I miss taking you to work, and sleeping under my desk, I miss our drives, I miss you hanging your head out of the window on our drives, I miss your running at the park, I miss your rolling in the grass, I miss your face in the sunlight, I miss you not coming to me the 1st time I call you, I miss your companionship, I miss your presence, I miss everything about you, I miss you Chauncey.
